1. Pending revision of reference (a), the following procedure will be followed in preparing official overseas temporary duty travel orders for Office of Logistics personnel:

a. A memorandum to the Deputy Director (Plans), as required by reference (b), will be prepared for the signature of the Director of Logistics in accordance with the attached format.

c. Reference (c) indicates that concurrence in the memorandum and travel order by the Chief of the Area Division(s) concerned from the standpoint of operational feasibility, and concurrence by the Chief of the Central Cover Division for cover, will satisfy the overall DD/P coordination requirements in respect to the proposed travel.
